MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration SUBJECT: Seminar Proposal

1. As part of its seminar program, the Center for the Study of Intelligence proposes, with your approval, to organize a second dinner meeting between the Agency's top management and working-level officers drawn from the four directorates. The impetus for the successful dinner meeting we had last July came from CSI's Interdirectorate Seminar, now in its third year. This time, rather than draw upon a selected group of younger officers to "tell it like it is," we would like to ask nine of the more experienced members of the Interdirectorate Seminar to participate.

2. We would suggest once again that the session begin at Headquarters with cocktails at 1800 hours and that dinner be served in the Executive Dining Room at 1930 hours, after four 5-minute presentations by one representative from each of the directorates. We would ask the presenters to use those 5 minutes to identify issues/problems of concern to them and their immediate colleagues. Discussion would continue through dinner and conclude at 2100 hours or thereabouts.

3. If this meets with your approval, we will select a convenient date on your calendar, notify the other participants, and prepare an agenda. A list of members of the Seminar is attached.

Not will be enthusiastic I could find little impact later did not get anything useful to me from the seminar. Not withstanding I am in there if it is scheduled

APPROVED:

I like a seminar now

Date

Don't see why this requires a dinner - same ground can be covered in a round table scheduled at close of business so that every one can get home for dinner & have that much more time to do homework
